MASSACHUSETTS HEALTH OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

HISTORY OF MHOA

Massachusetts Health Officers Association (MHOA) was formed to meet a local need. The foundations of MHOA began in 1950, when a group of health officials from cities and towns north of Boston began meeting together several times a year on a voluntary basis for the purpose of contributing their experiences for a better understanding and servicing of local health department practice and administration. This group became known as the North Metropolitan Health Officers and Agents Association. State Health Department officials took an interest and attended their meetings.

Because of the activities of this group and their interest in public health, many local health officials from communities south of Boston indicated a desire to become members of the group. On November 17, 1954, the name was changed to the Metropolitan Health Officers Association and included health officials from the Northeastern and Southeastern Health Districts of the State.

Interest and membership expanded to include local health officials west of Boston. In 1962, the name was changed to the Massachusetts Health Officers Association and membership was open to health officials throughout the state. The date of incorporation for MHOA was February 4, 1972. Over the years, the association has attracted many new members.

Currently, regular MHOA membership embodies any person employed as a Director, Agent, Public Health Nurse, or Inspector of a regional or local municipal agency for the purpose of carrying out the public health mandates of that agency; or any person certified by the Board of Certification of Health Officers.

Associate members include those individuals that do not meet the requirements of regular membership but wish to support and advance the objectives of MHOA. We are also proud to have a number of members emeritus, retired members, and honorary members.

MHOA is the official state affiliate of National Association of County and City Health Officials.

Jeffrey P. Stephens Award

This award is given in honor of the late Jeffrey P. Stephens, a cherished member of the MHOA Board of Directors and one of its officers at the time of his sudden illness and death in 2022. Jeff was a cheerful force for good in local public health, and his contributions extended well beyond the communities in which he worked. He was both a leader and a consummate volunteer, serving on and eventually chairing the Local-State Advisory Committee and its Small Budget Group, and helping to guide local public health preparedness efforts across the Commonwealth. Jeff seemed to be everywhere all at once – he never had to be asked to help, no matter how thin he was stretched he always volunteered.

This award is given annually to a member of any of the Coalition for Local Public Health organizations who, through their dedication, commitment and extensive service on committees or coalitions, has advanced regional or state-wide efforts to expand local public health capabilities.
